Change of guard among coeditors

We would like to inform all the readers and friends of the Review of Finance that there has been a change of guard among coeditors. Starting with this issue, Franklin Allen, Peter Bossaerts, Colin Mayer and Will Goetzmann are stepping down and are being replaced by Michael Brandt (Duke), Thierry Foucault (HEC Paris), Holger Mueller (NYU Stern) and Steven Ongena (Tilburg). We wish to express our gratitude to the departing coeditors for the splendid job that they have done for so many years: Franklin, Colin and Will since the start of the Review of Finance in 2004, and Peter since 2005. They have all played a crucial role in the journal's success with their hard work, good taste and ability to attract exciting and innovative papers. At the same time, we extend a very warm welcome to the new coeditors, who will contribute fresh energies as well as excellent competencies to the journal. We are also happy to inform you that Bernard Dumas will remain on board as coeditor, and that the departing coeditors have accepted to retain an active role in the journal: Franklin, Colin and Will as advisory editors, and Peter as associate editor.
