

JOURNAL OF FINANCIAL MARKETS

Aims and Scope: The Journal of Financial Markets will publish high quality original research on applied and theoretical issues related to securities trading and pricing. Area of coverage includes the analysis and design of trading mechanisms, optimal order placements strategies, the role of information in securities markets, financial intermediation as it relates to securities investments - for example, the structure of brokerage and mutual fund industries, and analysis of short and long run horizon price behaviour. The journal will strive to maintain a balance between theoretical and empirical work, and will aim to provide prompt and constructive reviews to paper submitters.
